

The Pilot Mentor Program

Wisconsin Aviation's Pilot Mentor Program partners you with one of our experienced Certified Flight Instructors to bring you to the level of confidence you need to make flying a part of your daily life. As you gain confidence, you will use your mentor less and less until you have the confidence to be on your own. It will be your call.

The program is designed to:

- Make all your flying experiences positive ones.
- Quickly build your confidence to use your aircraft and piloting skills for all your business and pleasure trips.
- Keep you from wasting time and money practicing the wrong things.
- Keep you well within the window of safety.

Self-Confidence, what you need to make full use of your piloting skills and your aircraft, is essentially a trust in yourself—and trust grows out of repeated positive experiences. Negative experiences, on the other hand, tend to erode confidence. Creating confidence is finding a way to have more positive experiences and achieve your goals.

Wisconsin Aviation's Pilot Mentor Program helps you do just that!

Expand Your Personal Limits!

Program Outline

At Signup . . . Meet with your personal mentor to:

- Give you an overview of the program.
- Discuss your flying goals.
- Assess your present skill and confidence level.
- Evaluate your aircraft and how it will support your flying goals.
- Determine any rental needs you may have.

Mentor Day Trips . . . As you have the need to fly for business or pleasure, your mentor will be scheduled to make the trip with you. You will plan the trip together. You will be the PIC, and your mentor will fly with you in the right seat. While you conduct your business, your mentor will wait at the airport. Upon completion of your trip, your mentor will give you a complete debrief. Cost: $395 per day***

*Based on single-engine and light twin airplanes. Larger aircraft will be priced according to type.

Mentor Overnight Trips . . . Mentor overnight trips are also available. The procedure is the same. The cost is the same plus overnight expenses.

Periodic Review Assessment . . . When appropriate, your mentor will give you a review assessment to determine how you are progressing toward your goals.
