

Certified Flight Instructor

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS:

1. Be at least 18 years of age.
2. Hold at least a commercial pilot certificate with an instrument rating.
3. Read, write, speak and understand the English language.
4. Hold at least a current third class medical certificate.
5. Pass a knowledge test as well as the oral and practical tests.

GROUND REQUIREMENTS:

There are no minimum FAA requirements for the flight instructor certificate. However, a good estimate would be 35 hours of ground instruction, including classroom instruction techniques, before achieving competency as set forth in the FAA Instructor Practical Test Standards. Each individual may require more or less time depending on past experience, knowledge, and currency.

FLIGHT REQUIREMENTS:

There are no minimum FAA requirements for the flight instructor certificate. However, a good estimate would be 15 hours of flight instruction before achieving competency as set forth in the FAA Instructor Practical Test Standards.

Again, each individual may require more or less time depending on past experience, knowledge, and currency.
